THE FOUR HUMOURS

- Emotion in Music -

Saturday, November 3, 2007, 7:30 p.m.
BARTLESVILLE COMMUNITY CENTER

Message from the Director

Welcome to the 31st season of the Bartlesville Choral Society, "The Colors of Music." Our theme for this evening is "The Four Humours," depicting the ever-changing range of human emotion as expressed in music. Aristotle theorized that human personalities could be divided into four categories or "humours." Our music tonight falls into those four moods.

So ask yourself, "Which type am I?" Does the music of the fiery Choleric appeal to you - impatient, energetic and stubborn? Or how about the songs of the Melancholics, deep, analytical, empathetic and introverted? Are you a Sanguine, the party animal so cheerful and charming? Or does the music of the Phlegmatic inspire you with its characteristics of calm, compassion and peace?

Whatever your personality, we're grateful for your support and friendship. May you get as much enjoyment from tonight's concert as we have presenting it to you.

Susan Mueller, Director

Intermission

PHLEGMATIC

- Meeresstille und Glückliche Fahrt.....Ludwig van Beethoven (text: Goethe)

Meeresstille (Calm Sea)

Deep stillness reigns on the water,
The sea rests motionless
And the sailor anxiously watches
the flat surface around him.
No wind from any direction!
All is deathly still, frightening!
In the vast open spaces no wave stirs.

Glückliche Fahrt (Successful Voyage)

The mist clears, the sky brightens
And Aeolus loosens the fearful bonds.
The wind whispers, and the sailor stirs.
Hurry! Hurry!
The waves part, the distance draws nearer,
I can see land already!

- Sleep.....Eric Whitacre
Not One Sparrow Is Forgotten.....Shaker Hymn (arr. William Hawley)

CHOLERIC

- I Burn and Am Enflamed by Thee.....Hans Leo Hassler
A Red, Red Rose.....James Mulholland (text: Robert Burns)
